Chanukah On Ice, a celebration to which all are invited

Although Chanukah begins at sundown today, it will be celebrated at 12:30 p.m. Sunday in the Mountain View Ice Arena, 14313 Mill Plain Boulevard, by Chabad Lubavitch of Clark County with an Menorah ice carving.

Vancouver Mayor Royce Pollard will light the middle candle. The second and third candles will then be lighted.

The event, to which the public is invited, is free. Hot dogs and beverages will be sold, but traditional potato pancakes will be free. Children will be presented with a dreidel and chocolate coins.

Candles are traditionally lighted each evening through Chanukah which ends at sundown Saturday, Dec. 27. For further information, call Rabbi Shmulik Greenberg, 576-8184.

Holiday Shop offering holiday discounts

Holiday Shop, 1707 Main Street, the seasonal store, that turns over all profits to nonprofit agencies in southwest Washington, currently offers 25 percent markdowns on selected merchandise.

Beginning Sunday, selected items will be marked down to 30 percent off, and on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 26, and 27, some items will be half price, reports spokesperson Lynn Hufschmid.

The store has brand-name merchandise in addition to traditional gift items, gourmet foods and holiday ornaments.

Store hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sundays.

Fire District 9 to share "burn tower" being paid for with Homeland Security grant

According to Fire District 9 Chief Scott Koehler, a $51,300 "burn tower" being financed through a Homeland Security Grant, announced by U.S. Rep. Brian Baird this week, will be shared with other fire districts.

The tower, which will simulate emergency fire situations, will be used as a training facility for firefighters and cadets.

Mike Smedley, Columbia River High School senior who helped take the Columbia River football team to the state quarterfinals this year, has been named a Rebound Athlete by the Rebound Center at Southwest Washington Medical Center. A first string defensive end, Smedley was hospitalized with back pain early in the season. After two weeks of targeted rehabilitation, He returned to practice and ultimately to the starting lineup. Smedley was recognized for having overcome significant hardships and physical obstacles through hard work and determination.

☞ A farewell reception for retiring Vancouver City councilperson Jeanne Lipton is 5 to 6 p.m. Monday, Dec. 22, in the first floor lobby of City Hall. Lipton, who was an unsuccessful candidate for mayor in November, completes a four-year term on the council this month.

Letter to the editor

Dear Mr. Bacon,

The Appeals Court members have probably never placed service calls. As homeowners, we are great admirers of Clark County PUD's repair service. We have had at least two dozen contractor problems over the past ten years. PUD's staff is always on time, courteous, careful and economical. We feel that we're being tossed to the repair wolves.
