Fairgrounds off-ramp construction shouldn't impede I-5 traffic

Financed by Q-Prime Amphitheater owners, construction on new on- and off-ramps at the I-5 NE 179th Street Clark County Fairgrounds exit should not impede I-5 traffic, according to the state Department of Transportation.

Through completion of construction, expected by late May, one lane of off-ramps in both directions will be closed from 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. Monday through Friday.

The amphitheater is expected to open in May.

Bank of Clark County first-quarter profits up

The Bank of Clark County reported today an increase in first quarter profits of 48.1 percent over March 2002.

According to Mike Worthy, bank president, local business clients are beginning to express more confidence in the local economy.

Worthy says clients are taking advantage of record low interest rates. "There hasn't been as good a time for capital investments in decades," Worthy says.
