County commissioners, hearing on comp plan alternatives continues today

Continued from last week, Clark County commissioners' hearing to select a preferred alternative for the county's comprehensive plan continues at 7 p.m. today in the offices of the Hazel Dell Sewer District, 8000 NE 52nd Court.

When selected the preferred alternative will become part of the updated comprehensive plan to be used as a guide for growth in the county and in the cities in the county for the next 20 years.

Alternatives under consideration differ in how they would promote job growth.

The commissioners will continue their discussion of the selection of a preferred alternative during their regular session at 10 a.m. Tuesday, July 1.

The comprehensive plan update is not expected to be adopted until late this year.

Free family movies scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday through August in Hazel Dell
