Jay Waite, remembered for his joy of life, will be interred at a private family service Friday

A private graveside service will honor Jay Waite Friday, at Evergreen Memorial Gardens.

Mr. Waite, who was 56 when he died suddenly of heart disease Monday, is remembered by friends and family for his sense of humor and joy of life.

Mr. Waite was a salesman for Vancouver Welding Supply Co. for the past 25 years. He was an outdoorsman, horticulturist, metal artist, cook and lover of fine wines. He was the proud grandfather of Mason and Sydney Waite, Vancouver.

A member of Ducks Unlimited, Mr. Waite often hunted near his Vancouver Lake home. His metal furniture pieces are in the homes of his family and many friends.

Born in Sterling, Colo., Jan. 20, 1947, Mr. Waite lived in Vancouver most of his life. He was graduated from Hudson's Bay High School.

In addition to his grandchildren and his wife of 34 years, Ruth, Mr. Waite is survived by their son, Aaron, Vancouver; and four brothers, Jack, Adrian, Ore., Richard, Canby, Dale, Ridgefield, and Gary Maumee, Ohio.

Memorials may be made to Hospice Southwest or Kaiser Hospice.

New visitor information Center open 7 days a week

Although there is no sign outside designating it, the Visitor Information Center in the Old Slocumb House in Esther Short Park, operated by the Southwest Washington Convention & Visitors Bureau, is open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. every day through September 9.

Last year, visitors to Clark County spent $262 million, according to bureau president Kim Bennett. For local visitor information, call 750-1553.

Federal tax cut will change withholding rate on July 1, but cut is retroactive to Jan. 1

Withholding of federal income taxes from paychecks will change as of Tuesday, July 1, reflecting the recently adopted federal tax cuts.

Although the tax cut is effective Jan. 1, the withholding rate won't reflect the first six months of the year.

Employees are advised to talk with a tax advisor if further withholding changes are desired.

Decision on preferred land use alternative expected at continued hearing Monday

Public comments on the proposed preferred land use alternatives will be accepted by Clark County commissioners during the continuance of a public hearing at 7 p.m. Monday, June 30, in the Hazel Dell Sewer District office, 8000 NE 52nd Court.

The hearing was continued from last Monday. At issue are alternative ways of developing a greater job base through planning within an updated county growth management plan.
