Discovery Walk Festival bringing thousands to walk throughout Vancouver this weekend

The 8th annual Discovery Walk Festival is bringing out thousands of walkers and bicyclists to Vancouver this weekend, beginning with the Mayor's Walk that begins between 4 and 6 p.m. today and ends at 9 p.m. Opening ceremonies are at 6:30 p.m.

Sanctioned by the International Marching League, the walking festival attracts walkers and walking teams from Norway, Japan, Germany, Britain and North America.

Sponsored by Southwest Washington Medical Center and New Balance Shoes, registration, and the beginning and end of all events, is at the Red Lion Hotel at the Quay.

Walking events range from 3 to 42 kilometers, and cycling events range from 25 to 50 kilometers. Swimming events are at the Hough Pool.

The Discovery walk is also part of the SWMC's Passport to Wellness program. The medical center is offering free fitness workshops from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Registration for official events is $8 per event, except for children 12 and under, which is free. For further information, call (877) 269-2009.

Nez Perce Memorial event includes peace pipe ceremony with military veterans

All military veterans are invited to participate in the peace pipe ceremony with the Nez Perce Indians during the Indian nation's seventh annual memorial commemoration at Vancouver Barracks Saturday, April 24.

The two-and-a-half-hour memorial, which is proffered to heal old wounds, pays ancestral tribute to the Chief Redheart band, which was imprisoned at Vancouver Barracks during the winter of 1877-78.

The public is invited to watch and listen to the speeches, singing and dancing, and the riderless horse procession. The ceremony begins about 10 a.m. at the barracks north of the Fort Vancouver National Monument parking area on E 5th Street. Visitors are urged to bring blankets and lawn chairs.

Home and Garden Idea Fair in full bloom

Clark Public Utilities' Home and Garden Idea Fair opened today at the Clark County Fairgrounds. It will be open until 8 p.m. tonight and Saturday, and until 5 p.m. Sunday. The fair opens at 9 a.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. Sunday.

The fair hosts the largest plant sale in the Vancouver-Portland metropolitan region. Admission is free, but parking is $3. Donations for Operation Warm Heart will be accepted.
