

Kimsey urges local citizens to get involved in election issues through voters' pamphlet

Citizens who have opinions they wish to express on any of the issues which will be appearing on the primary or general election ballots this year have until Tuesday, July 20, to make requests to the appropriate jurisdiction to express their opinions through a committee writing for and against opinions to be printed in the local voters' pamphlet.

The deadline for submitting written statements for the pamphlet is Tuesday, July 27.

According to Clark County auditor Greg Kimsey, local jurisdictions are required to appoint committees to produce for and/or against statements which appear in the voters' pamphlet.

However, Kimsey says, often his office receives only supporting arguments for local ballot measures, with no opposing statements included because the jurisdiction has not found anyone opposing the measure.

Thus far, measures will be placed on primary and general election ballots in Clark County submitted by The City of Washougal, Fire Districts 3, 6, and 12, and the Battle Ground, Camas and Ridgefield School Districts. Kimsey says Fire District 10 has indicated it may place a measure on the primary ballot.

For further information, call Kimsey, 397-2078, or Elections supervisor Tim Likness, 397-2345.
