Republicans say poll puts Gregoire and Rossi nearly dead even in governors race

A poll released by Elway Research, Inc., this morning shows significant upward momentum for Republican gubernatorial candidate Dino Rossi.

According to Rossi's campaign headquarters, the poll shows that in a four-way head-to-head match up, 26% of respondents chose Democrat Christine Gregoire for Governor, compared to 25% for Rossi, 9% for Democrat Ron Sims, and 3% for Democrat Phil Tallmadge.

"After being crushed for two elections in a row, the Republicans look to have a legitimate shot at the Governor's mansion this year," says pollster Stuart Elway.

In a previous Elway poll conducted last November, Gregoire received 24%, Rossi 8%, Sims 5% and Tallmadge 4%.

The Elway Poll was conducted February 18-21.

Turkish folk musician presents program on ancient Turkey at WSU Vancouver Tuesday

Turkish folk and Sufi musician Latif Bolat will present music, poetry, stories and images from the ancient land of Turkey, at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 9, as part of WSU Vancouver's Spring 2004 Honors Lecture Series, "Living Wisdom: Cultures of World Religions."

One of the best-known Turkish musicians in the United States, Bolat's performance, which includes some of his own musical compositions, draws on ancient texts and employs traditional instrumentations such as the baglama (a long-necked lute).

The program in the Student Services Building, Room 110, and is free and open to the public. For further information, call Wendy Dasler-Johnson, 546-9648.

Jim West opening deli in Vancouver mall

Jim West, former owner of Rose's Deli & Bakery, and his wife, Betsy West, as ClarkWest Development, are opening an All American Deli & Ice Cream Shop in Westfield Shoppingtown.

All American Deli serves sandwiches, light non-fat snacks and sweet premium treats, according to West.

RSV Construction, which is remodeling the space for the new deli, is expected to complete the new deli in mid-April.
