

Salvador Brotons directing Young Artists Concert

Salvador Brotons, music director of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, will conduct the orchestra's Young Artist Concert at 3 p.m. Saturday, April 16, and at 7 p.m. Sunday, April 17, in the Skyview High School Concert Hall, 1300 NW 139th Street.

Being showcased are two young musicians who won the symphony orchestra's competition in February. Ely Karr, 17, Vancouver, was chosen best in the violin category and Eloise Kim, 12, Tigard, won the piano competition. Karr will play the "Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso" by Camille Saint-Saens. Kim performs the first movement of Concerto in E Minor by Frederic Chopin. Also on the program are "Le Tombeau de Couperin" by Ravel and de Falla's "The Three-Cornered Hat."

Tickets are $23 and $35. For further information, call 735-7278.

Insider readers are eligible to compete for pairs of free tickets to the concerts by answering the following question: For how many years has the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra been presenting Young Artists Concerts? Answers are to be emailed to Kelly O'Neill, thevso@vancouversymphony.org.

Nighttime lane closures this Week on I-205 134th Avenue

Motorists traveling I-205 northbound for the next two nights will have short detours at the NE 134th Street interchange between 10 p.m. and 5 a.m. as highway crews work on the NE 20th Avenue bridge crossing.

Similar detours will be required of southbound motorists Thursday, April 14, and Friday, April 15.

Volunteers being sought for hazardous materials study

A study to document the movement of hazardous materials truck traffic through Clark County will utilize field observation volunteers, according to De Ann Wilson, study manager for the Clark County Local Emergency Planning Committee.

The information collected will be used by fire, law enforcement, emergency management and other public safety professionals for emergency planning, Wilson says.

Volunteers must be able to pass a basic security-clearance background check. Training begins Friday, April 22.

For further information, call 737-1911, extension 3962.

Studded tires gotta go

Beginning Tuesday, April 12, tickets will be issued to motorists who still have studded tires on their vehicles. The minimum fine is $101.

Studded tires are legal in Washington between November 1 to March 31, but the deadline was extended this year. Oregon will also be issuing citations for studded tire use.

News briefs

The Vancouver City Council meets in workshop session at 4 p.m. today. ☞ The Neighborhood Associations Council of Clark County meets at 7 p.m. this evening in the Clark County Public Works Conference Room, 4700 NE 78th Street. ☞ Clark Public Utilities' commissioners meet in regular session at 9 a.m. Tuesday, April 12. ☞ Port of Vancouver commissioners meet in regular session at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, April 12. ☞ The Industrial Revenue Bond Public Corporation of Clark County meets at 9:45 a.m. Tuesday, April 12, in the county commissioner's hearing room in the Public Service Center, 1300 Franklin Street. ☞ Clark County commissioners meet in regular session at 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 12.

Correction

Inadvertently the Insider last week misidentified the Pacific Die Casting representative on the Identity Clark County board of directors as Bob Byrd, when in fact that board member is Bill Byrd III.

Monday headlines from at home and around the world:

ARTillery art project in Vancouver Barracks could get approval next month: plans call for 100 art studios, gallery-exhibition space, retail space, classrooms and a cafe--Columbian, Jeffrey Mize

Clark College Student Union to open with day-long festivities Wednesday--Columbian, Amy McFall Prince

WSU Vancouver promotes faculty members--Columbian, Barbara Samuels

Blizzard socks in Denver airport--KGW-TV, AP

Motorists watch still soaring gasoline prices--USA TODAY, Reuters

Bush asks Sharon to stick to "road map"--USA TODAY

Monday on the air

Vancouver City Council Workshop (live)—4 p.m. CVTV

Portland Beavers at Fresno (live)—7 p.m. KKAD

Vancouver City Council (4/4)—7 p.m. CVTV

Town Tabloids and the weather

Michael Kawahara giving away daughter Colleen. 🍷 Aki Yokoyama says “I do!” 🍷 Denise Motohiro does matron of honor duties. 🍷 Masaki Shimada fulfilling best man requirements. 🍷 Yasushi, Sayoko and Hiro-nobu Yokoyama joining Nancy, John, Mac and Pat Kawahara in celebration. 🍷 Monday, showers and sun-breaks, 53. Tuesday, windy and rainy, 51. Wednesday, showers return, 53.