Oops!

Sherry Mowatt co-founder, along with Eleanor Van de Water, of the Fort Vancouver Tapestry project, was misidentified in last Friday's Insider as Sherry Moffat.

We've written about Mowatt and Van de Water often over the past six years, during when the record-making historical tapestry was in progress. It's the second time we've dropped a stitch, having once previously misspelled Van de Water.

The perfectly edited and proofed, 108-foot tapestry is on display in the Student Union Building at Clark College.
