

Riverview Bank adds Veeps

Kareen Cabatingan and Tony Ton have been appointed vice presidents and commercial loan officers at Riverview Community Bank, reports Riverview's executive vice president and chief credit officer Dave Dahlstrom.

Ton will work out of Riverview Tower in downtown Vancouver. Ton, a Washington State University graduate, holds a masters degree in international management from Portland State University. He has over ten years of local commercial and retail banking experience.

Cabatingan will be located in Riverview's Clackamas Commercial Banking office opening in mid-November. She is a graduate of the University of San Carlos and the Hipereon Commercial Lending Institute, Kareen serves as a board member for the Oregon Mortgage Lenders Association and is a committee member of the Portland Chapter of Commercial Real Estate Women Network. She is also active in charitable work for the March of Dimes, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and the City of Hope.

According to Dahlstrom, the bank has assets of $821 million and is expanding its commercial banking activity.

Columbia Credit helps Gaiser School students count change for charity

Gaiser Middle School students who recently collected an estimated more than $3,000 in a chest drive as part of a district-wide fund drive for charity. began to slow down a bit when it came to counting the contributed coins.

Vancouver School District Foundation member Rich Biggs placed a call to Parker Cann, president of Columbia Credit Union, and, voila! a coin counting machine is being delivered to the school.

Each year Vancouver students collect nearly $50,000, which last year was contributed to the district foundation and earmarked to help provide basic needs for district students.

Ceremony honoring fallen K9 Dakota is next Monday

K9 Dakota

A public ceremony to remember Vancouver Police Department K9 Dakota, who was killed in the line of duty October 23 during the apprehension of an armed suspect, will be at 5 p.m. Monday, Nov. 5, in the Fort Vancouver High School auditorium, 5700 E 18th Street.

Dakota, whose handler was officer Roger Evans, was perhaps more remarkable than most K9s. During his 15 months with the force he was responsible for 150 narcotics finds and 100 suspect captures.

Donations to the Dakota Memorial Fund may be taken to the Bank of Clark County main branch, 1400 Washington Street, or mailed to the bank at P.O. Box 61725, Vancouver, WA 98666-1725. Envelopes that can be mailed to the bank can be obtained at any Vancouver precinct office. The police department cannot accept donations. All money collected will go toward buying and training a new K9.

CVTV to carry election returns

CVTV executive producer Donna Mason will report Tuesday, Nov. 6, general election returns from Gaiser Hall in Clark College beginning about 8:30 p.m.

Live coverage will be telecast and also made available to Internet viewers who go to www.cvtv.org.

Kareen Cabatingan

Tony Ton

In addition, Mason will interview winners and losers.

Calendar

The Greater Vancouver Chamber of Commerce presents a restaurant and winery showcase from 5 to 7 p.m. Thursday, this evening, in the Hilton Vancouver Washington. Vendors will be offering samples. Admission for chamber members is $15 in advance or $20 at the door. Admission for non-members is $20 in advance, $25 at the door. To register, call 694-2588. <> A lecture by retired Central Washington University professor and U.S. Naval reservist Harry Sutherland will give Clark County Historical Museum audiences insight into the Pacific Theater, World War II. There is no charge for the museum's First Thursday Lecture at 7 p.m. this evening in the museum at 1511 Main Street. <> U.S. Rep. Brian Baird (D-3rd) and Vancouver Mayor Royce Pollard will be in the Bank of Clark County, 1400 Washington Street, to buy Veterans Family Fund certificate of deposits, benefiting local military veterans and their families at 10 a.m. Friday, Nov. 2. <> "City of Portraits," a non-traditional exploration of portraiture featuring some of Vancouver's citizens who help define the community, opens in the North Bank Gallery, 1005 Main Street, from 4 to 8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 2. The exhibit continues through December 5.

Thursday on the air

Northwest Indian News—3 p.m. FVTV
RSVP Recognition Lunch—4 p.m. CVTV
City Minutes (1-0/28)—5:15 p.m. CVTV
Cooking with Class—5:30 p.m. FVTV
FYI-Native Plant Guide—5:56 p.m. CVTV
Disability Awareness Employment—6 p.m. CVTV
Vancouver Land Use Hearings (live)—6:55 p.m. CVTV

Town Tabloids and the Weather

Chandra Chase says maps are most first and most requested. <> Susan Courtney into face painting. <> Colin Dunn getting A+. <> Bob Knight successfully stares down cockroach. <> Gloria Campbell giving good advice. <> Thursday, hazy and cloudy, 57. Friday, mostly sunny, 58. Saturday, mostly sunny, 62.