Vancouver Symphony Orchestra puts spotlight on young artists

Three young Oregon artists are in the spotlight at the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra's young artists concert this Saturday and Sunday in the concert hall at Skyview High School, 1300 NE 139th Street.

Winners of a competition earlier this year are the following: pianist Vivian Chang, 14, Beaverton; alto saxophonist Nicole Skau, 16, Portland; and violinist Nanao Yamada, 14, Wilsonville.

Salvador Brotons, the symphony orchestra's artistic director, will conduct the 3 p.m. Saturday, April 14, and 7 p.m. Sunday, April 15, concerts. Special guest conductor Saturday only is Tatsuo Ito, executive vice president of Vancouver-based SEH America, who will lead the symphony in Bizet's L'Arlesienne-Farandole. Ito earned the guest conductor spot by being a top bidder at the VSO annual fundraiser last year.

John Pitman, music director and program host for KBPS All Classical 89.1 Radio, will narrate Britten's Young Person's Guide to the Orchestra at both performances.

Reserved seating is $35, general admission is $25, senior tickets are $20, and student tickets are $5. For further information, call 735-7278.
