

Nearing completion in Battle Ground is Battle Ground Village Building A, part of a 21-acre retail shopping center on SE Rasmussen Boulevard and 119th Street. Entire mixed-use project is 108 acres.

Battle Ground Village leases being accepted

Retail leases are being negotiated and construction is continuing apace at Battle Ground Village, a 21-acre retail shopping center on SE Rasmussen Boulevard and 199th Street, scheduled to open in July, reports Carmen Villarma president of The Management Group.

The retail center is part of a large-scale 108-acre mixed-use master-planned development, the largest under construction in north Clark County. In addition to retail, the project includes a 31-acre office park of 375,000 square feet, including medical space and scheduled for completion in the spring of 2008.

The remaining acreage will be given over to residential developments and community space. The complex will also contain the proposed Battle Ground Community Library.

According to Villarma, Battle Ground Village will serve a primary trade area of 158,200 people in a total north county trade area of 391,400 people. The area is expected to grow by another 15 percent between now and 2010.

The growth management plan is being updated to accommodate a projected increase of nearly 100,000 people by 2024, to 584,300.

Correction story has a moral to it

On Tuesday the Insider's light-fingered editor blew the correct website address for a map of Clark County's

First phase of Battle Ground Village will be ready for occupancy in early summer designated North Clark County Scenic Drive. The correct address is <http://www.clark.wa.gov/NScenicDrive.pdf>.

The wrong address for the map was listed as <http://www.pdxinfo.net/>. But, we are glad we brought that up, because <http://www.pdxinfo.net/> is one of the most important links in the Insider. The site belongs to Craig Walker's Flash News

The moral to this story is that readers who go to the Flash News link—it usually follows the day's headline links—are taken to Walker's Flash News website, where most of the region's relevant breaking raw news releases, as well as archival news, can be found. Readers will find police and county sheriff reports at that site. It is a real treasure of regional news, since it includes Portland and most of northern Oregon news, too.
