

Welcome, Salmon Creek Grand Opening

Skills center restaurant now open

“A Touch of Class,” the student-operated restaurant at the Clark County Skills Center, is now open to the public on those Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays that the Skills Center is open.

Students in the Skills Center’s Restaurant Management/Culinary Arts program host, prepare and serve breakfast from 8:45 a.m. to 10 a.m. and lunch from 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The American Culinary Federation recently renewed its certification of the program. Prices are nominal and affordable.

For more information or to make reservations please call Robbin McColley at 360-604-1050 or send email to mccolle@egreenwednet.edu.

Opened in 1983, the Clark County Skills Center is owned and operated by ten southwest Washington school districts providing technical and professional training programs that help prepare Clark County high school and college students for the workforce.

The Skills Center is located at 12200 NE 28th St. in Vancouver.
