Youth drug prevention team seeks new members

The Clark County Strong Teens Against Substance Hazards and Abuse Peer Education Program is recruiting youth to fill vacant positions for the 2009-2010 program year.

Peer Educators are dedicated to addressing alcohol and other drug issues among youth in Clark County. They promote awareness through outreach and educational programs while serving as a resource for peers. Youth serve a one-year term and commit to attending evening meetings held on the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month.

Requirements are that youth must be Clark County residents, from grades 7-12, and have an interest in sharing their opinions and perspectives about substance abuse prevention. Training is provided. Those interested should submit an application by Monday, Sept. 14, and participate in an interview process.

For further information, or to request an application, please contact Angela McKinney, Peer Education Coordinator, at 397-2130, extension 5841, or angela.mckinney@clark.wa.gov. Applications are also available online at <http://www.clark.wa.gov/youth-family/prevention.html>.

78th Street, WSU plans are on display

The public is invited to review and provide comments on three draft plans for the 78th Street, WSU property. The goal is to create a regional hub for farming, agricultural research, community education, historic interpretation, and recreation.

Display of materials and comment forms will be available through Friday, Aug. 21, in the lobby on the first floor at Clark County Public Service Center, 1300 Franklin St. The building will be open from 5 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 13, to accommodate people who work during the day. Staff will be available that evening to answer questions.

The draft concept plans may be viewed and comments submitted online at www.clark.wa.gov/78WSU. Comments are needed by Aug. 21.

Open house at Clark County Sherriff's Office West Precinct

The Clark County Sherriff's Office West Precinct is having a public open house about the on-street parking restrictions in the Mount Vista area near Washington State University, Vancouver. The open house is from 6 to 8 p.m. tomorrow, Aug. 11, at 505 NW 179th Street.

In 2008, a group of residents north and west of the WSU Vancouver campus asked the county to restrict on-street parking. Surveys conducted in spring 2009 showed that a majority of residents living on Northeast 147th, 148th and 150th Streets and 26th Avenue favored the change.

Clark County Public Works is seeking additional input before making a recommendation to the Board of County Commissioners. If approved, the county would restrict on-street parking along Northeast 147th, 148th and 150th Streets between 29th and 26th Avenues, and on Northeast 26th Avenue between 147th and 148th Streets. Other roads north of Northeast 150th Street could also be affected.

The restrictions would occur Mondays through Thursdays from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Fridays from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m.

For more information, please contact traffic engineer Richard Gamble at 397-6118 extension 4384, or by e-mail at Richard.Gamble@clark.wa.gov.
